with the intent to make him more comfortable with casual conversations and meeting new people

By Leigh Ann Ritter

This is the coolest book ever!! I bought it for my son for his high school graduation, with the intent to make him more comfortable with casual conversations and meeting new people. I have now introduced it to my co-workers as a way to make more personal connections with our customers. And you can open it up at a party or with a group of friends at any gathering to get a great discussion started instantly. LOVE IT!!!!

By jose

Some are ok, but a lot of the questions are redundant. Most of these you can come up with in your own. I'm not sure what I was really expecting. But this book really isn't for me. I will give it another chance, and will update with a new review.
