Mobility and cloud computing are two major trends that are wreaking havoc in the business models of established companies in a variety of industries. This volume in the Electronic Business Case Study Series introduces the effects of these trends on technology and media. It first examines the evolution of cloud computing, and then studies the preeminent provider of Software as a Service – Salesforce.com. It looks at the introduction of the iPhone and the smartphone wars that ensued. The last two case studies focus on the transformation of TV and book reading in the on-demand economy, examining Netflix and the evolution of eReaders and eBooks. A companion volume, Business Models Case Collection, looks more broadly at the analysis and design of business models.
