By Kate RYan

The level of credibility of this couple is second to none. Being the Kennedy Profile in Courage Award winner in 1996, a superintendent of schools and a public servant, people can now see that indeed it is the good decent people of this country that are being targeted with the torturous technology that few citizens are even aware exists. Rouge criminals are in charge of BLACK OPS that abuse our own innocent citizens - the Whistleblowers, the Political Activists, the Human Rights Activists. And it is all money driven when 60% of the country's budget is military. This gives the public a window into the SILENT HOLOCAUST that is occurring and I hope it serves to WAKE UP the public. So many of targeted individuals have been criticized by the unwitting and assumed to be mentally ill. Well now you can't use that excuse when a married couple has witnessed the same bizarre events - Black Helicopters, ongoing home entries, severe electronic attacks to the body, non stop harassment. Thank you Dr. & Mrs. Cherubini for telling your story and sounding the alarm.

As a Targeted Individual myself, I have been devouring these books by other TIs.

Dr. Cherubini's book was not only factual but also as interesting as the DaVinci Code - it was a nail biter that was fast paced. This is a man that helped improve the educational system in his community by notifying the Federal government that tracking was a discriminatory practice that violated the Civil Rights Act of 1964. This was back in 1995. He's now been under surveillance, harassed, and tortured for over a decade, and he fears for his and his wife's lives.

Gang stalking is a human rights abuse that violates even the most basic human rights of the pursuit of liberty and happiness. It violates privacy - there is none. It's been termed "slow death" and "soft death" because it breaks the human spirit and can result in suicide (forced suicide) - it's slow and leaves little evidence behind. I just read that Ernest Hemingway was under surveillance for 20 years and committed suicide. Lots of these "suicides" on law-abiding citizens were actually forced and to cover it up even more, TIs are called "mentally ill."

I once thought forced suicides were something used in the Middle East to get around laws against honor killings -- now I know that they are not specific to the Middle East. The US does it on its own citizens.

Please contact your elected officials to pass anti-surveillance laws. Gang stalking can happen to anyone, at anytime. It's illegal and unethical. Preserve the right to liberty and the pursuit of happiness. Protect privacy and human dignity. Allow everyone the right to being notified of their wrong doing, the right to a fair trial and jury, and the right to official penalties - not some covert slow death.

This book is authentic, and my heart went out to these people as I read it. I am sure that the precious energy required to write this book took its toll on the author, so thank you for your effort. We all need to keep telling our stories. My own book will be out soon enough.

Interesting note: I moved into a new home in late 2014. As I drove down the street one of the first days I was there, I saw a very bright blue mustang sitting in a neighbor's driveway. No surprise there, mustangs have been the main car of choice in my stalking. However, this one had a paper license instead of plates that read "Murfreesboro". As happens often, I suspected this was some kind of message to me. I did not know that Murfreesboro was a city. Several days later, somebody posted something about Murfreesboro on my Facebook timeline.

I googled Murfreesboro, but nothing of any import came up. When I read the book, it all became clear. Also around the time I read the book, I was at the beach and two big black helicopters flew overhead. Gangstalking really sucks.

But this book is a must read for TI's and anybody else who wants to know more about it.
