Model UN is a common extracurricular activity in high school. Participants are often competing for awards during the conference, which may be mentioned in college resumes. In addition, Model UN provides valuable skills to the individuals participating and provide substantial growth to the individuals. This book shows ways to succeed in Model UN through methods that I have used in my high school MUN career. The easy bullet point format subdivides all ideas into a quick, digestible read that will be an easy reference material in the future. Why go to a conference without maximizing your chance to win an award?

Great resource

By Honey Chawla

I wanted some tips to do better in conferences, and I'm excited to apply these skills for my next one. I'm sure I'll win an award! It was definitely well worth the money.
