Odd plot, but good

By H. Wilson

We mostly like this book in my house. We bought it because Pretzel looks like Hundley from Curious George. The plot feels a little odd (Pretzel falls in love with another dog and desperately wants her to marry him; she doesn't want to), but I think that's just because it's 70+ years old and it's not what we're used to in our kids' books anymore. Still, it's cute and my son (3yo) likes it, so it's popular in our house.

Cute story

By Mooviejunkie

We bought a dachshund 16 years ago, her name was Jasmine, and she grew up with our kids. Jasmine is no longer with us but our daughter and son-in-law bought two baby dachshunds to grow up with their baby boys. After reading this book I had to buy it for our grandkids to enjoy when they come to grandma and grampa's house.

Perfect

By LaVaMomma

Such a good story, especially since we have a dog who is half dachshund, and we call him pretzel dog when he curls up in his bed, and he has a long haired dachshund girlfriend down the street. I am also a long time Curious George fan (so much so I have a tattoo of him). This could not have been more perfect.
